

Are you having problems at work?

Are you considering resigning?

Perhaps you have been dismissed or facing disciplinary proceedings?

hackney community
lawcentre

HCLC's WEDNESDAY EMPLOYMENT LAW CLINIC MAY BE ABLE TO ASSIST

You can have a free initial assessment on several issues including the more common problems:

- Disputes over wages (including unauthorised deductions and failures to pay). Employer or agency has not issued wage slips.
- Your rights when your employer changes
- Settlement or compromise agreements
- Your rights if you have been made (or are about to be made) redundant.
- Less favourable treatment in the workplace because of your race, religion, disability, gender, pregnancy etc.
- Your request for time off or flexible working has been refused.
- Your fixed term contract has ended but the job is still needed.
- You are facing disciplinary proceedings or have already been dismissed
- Your job is at risk because of long-term sickness, personal injury, or poor performance/capability.
- Employer failing to act on your grievance or follow any standard disciplinary procedures.
- Agency and umbrella contract workers who have problems with contracts including holidays and overtime?
- You want to make (or have already made) an Employment Tribunal claim.
- You face victimisation or harassment following something you did.

WE CAN ADVISE AND ASSIST ON THESE AND MANY MORE ISSUES.
GIVE US A CALL ON 0208 985 5236 TO CHECK CLINIC AVAILABILITY

Please inform us of any imminent deadlines when you call {Employment Tribunal deadlines are absolutely strict for bringing claims}